

Florida's Changing Education Landscape

Nearly 1.9 Million Students Choose

More than half of all Florida's K-12 students participate in an education choice program

406,811 in Charter Schools privately operated under contract with school districts 	287,292 in Open Enrollment in public school districts including 18,654 students using transportation scholarships 	267,413 receiving the Family Empowerment Scholarship for Educational Options (FES-EO) 	161,907 in Advanced International Certificate (AICE) programs for 11th and 12th graders
156,552 in Career and Professional Academies at public high schools 	137,687 in Choice and Magnet Programs 	117,272 receiving the Family Empowerment Scholarship for Students with Unique Abilities (FES-UA), including 1,844 in public schools 	102,841 in Home Education and not in PEP or FES-UA
87,934 in Private Schools paying on their own 	59,415 receiving the Personalized Education Program (PEP) learning at home or a hybrid learning program 	55,840 receiving the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship (FTC) 	26,019 attending full-time Virtual Schools
16,693 in International Baccalaureate programs at district schools 	3,720 in Lab Schools operated by Florida universities 	1,308 receiving the Hope Scholarship, attending a public school 	828 attending different public schools thanks to the Opportunity Scholarship or No Child Left Behind

1,889,532 (53%)

of all K-12 students in Florida attend an educational option of their parent's choice